

BURNAWAY

Internships

Burnaway seeks Editorial Interns.

Interns at Burnaway can anticipate a wide variety of experiences in assisting with the magazine's day-to-day operations. Interns will support our editorial team by assisting with data entry, daily publishing activities, the 2020 Burnaway Reader, and archival work. Applications will be considered for both local and remote interns; applicants aren't necessarily required to live in Atlanta. Interns will receive a biweekly stipend.

Applications will be accepted through 12 midnight on Friday, July 31, and applicants should expect to be contacted the following week with further information. This internship will begin during the week of August 10 and run through the week of November 23.

Interns should

- be enrolled in or have recently graduated from an undergraduate degree program.
- have demonstrable experience with and interest in contemporary art or critical writing.
- be comfortable performing a wide range of tasks.
- be eager to learn and actively engage with the organization.

Interns should be familiar with

- writing and editing.
- photo editing with Adobe Creative Suite.
- WordPress, Mailchimp, and social media platforms including Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter.
- contemporary art and art history.
- data entry and attention to detail.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter and two writing samples to info@burnaway.org.